Jerry Cornelius is a character, an urban adventurer created by author Michael Moorcock. Cornelius is a hipster of ambiguous and occasionally polymorphous gender. Many of the same characters feature in each of several Cornelius books, though the individual books have little connection with one another, having a more metafictional than causal relationship. The first Jerry Cornelius book, The Final Programme, was made into a 1973 film starring Jon Finch and Jenny Runacre. Notting ...

The complete review's Review: . The four novels collected in The Cornelius Chronicles (republished in slightly revised form as The Cornelius Quartet) present an arc of Jerry Cornelius-adventures, from the (fairly) straightforward action-adventure of the first, The Final Programme, to the metaphysical summa of The Condition of Muzak. Cornelius, of course, lives on elsewhere: Moorcock created the ...
